Cave City Good Ole Day

Sponsored by: Cave City Proud Citizens

Sept. 23 - 24

Dear Crafters & Vendors:

We would like to invite you to participate in this year's Cave City Proud Days celebration on September 23-24, 2016.

In coordination with Cave City's 150th Anniversary, we feel it is only fitting to have a theme and try to bring back the "Good Ole Days" in Cave City. The Good Ole Days was a celebration in the 1960's and 1970's which celebrated the rich heritage of Cave City, from days gone by. During this period, the folks would dress in the costume from back in the early settler days of Cave City. We hope to have some added entertainment this year in honor of our theme.

We look forward to your participation in our small town festival honoring our heritage and to show the restored pride our citizens are taking in our city. Cave City will host arts and crafts vendors, food vendors, children's activities, live music and more.

This is a great weekend to mark your calendars. Vendors may set up any time after 12:00 on Fri. or set up by 8:00 on Sat. on Main St.

Our booth rental fee for 10 ft. by 10 ft. space will be $25/or $35 for a space with electric. Deadline for this price is Sept. 17. After this date, all booth rentals are $40.

For booth space, vendor, and event questions, please feel free to call. Leave a message and any of these folks will get back with you to answer questions.
